

Parent Rights

- Expect a high level of professionalism, academic excellence and student services from Marshall Undergraduate International Programs.
- Expect appropriate levels of communication with Marshall Undergraduate International Programs regarding our programs abroad and service offered to students.
- Ability to contact Marshall Undergraduate International Programs staff immediately in the case of any student emergency or health-and-safety concern.
- Confidence that your child is placed in a safe environment.
- Expect that your child will be able to follow Marshall Undergraduate International Programs policies and contact exchange partner in-country staff at any time in case of difficulty or emergency.