

THAILAND

Sasin Graduate Institute of Business Administration

Sasin Graduate Institute of Business Administration was founded on September 15, 1982, by Chulalongkorn University, the oldest and best-known university in Thailand, with the support and collaboration of the Kellogg School of Management and The Wharton School. It is home to the first MBA program in Thailand to be taught completely in English. Sasin is also the first and only business school in Thailand to be accredited by AACSB and EQUIS and one of only a few business schools in Asia with both accreditations.

Since its inception, Sasin has brought to Thailand a selection of the best of the best teaching faculty. Initially, all its faculty were visitors drawn from those associated with the Wharton School and the Kellogg School of Management. Now, Sasin offers a mix of visiting and full-time faculty with backgrounds in over 10 countries. In 2021 it was ranked in Asia's top 10 by World University Rankings for Entrepreneurship and Alumni Outcomes.

FACILITIES/HOUSING

SASIN has a computer lab and recreational facilities including a swimming pool, fitness center, aerobics center, and sauna for students to use.

There are two options for on-campus housing for international exchange students:

- The Sasa International House, a three-minute walk from Sasin, has newly furnished rooms. Room rental rates are 28,000 baht per month.
- CU-iHouse-Chulalongkorn University is a 10–15-minute walk from Sasin. The current monthly rental rate is about 14,000 baht per month. This includes maid cleaning service twice a month. At check-in you must pay a 2-month deposit along with the 1-month rental fee, totaling 42,000 baht. Your 2-month deposit will be returned once checked out.

Many exchange students enjoy off-campus accommodation. There are a few service apartments near Sasin.
